The Publisher to the Reader.

COURTEOUS READER :

IT pleaseth the Lord in this latter age of the world to giue vs sundry helpes, whereby the man of sinne, (with all that bloodie Crew) is more and more discovered: and Gods elect lead (as it were) by the hand out of Babylon.

If any therefore (shutting their eyes against the light) remaine notwithstanding vnder the yoke of Antichrist: they must make account to feele for is, the sorer and heavier wrath of God.

Touching this Treatise what it is, I shall leave it to thy triall and censure, and as thou findest profit by the reading thereof, so bleesse God for is, and be ready to communicate the good which thou receivest, vnto the profit of others. Farewell and pray for mee.

Who is thy truly loving friend
and Countie-man,

Alwayes give prayse to God, and let him have the glory of all.

Ind and Loving Christian Freind ; J kindly salute you in our Lord and Saviour Iesus Christ, Beseeching him, that his enlightning spirit, the Spirit of Truth, may both now and ever be with you, and remaine with you, and all those that desire to serve and worship God, in all his commandements, according to his revealed will, & not according to mens precepts and devices, which is odious and abominable to him;
Math. 15 9 Col. 2 Gal. 4. 9 10. EJay 66. 3.

But now to give an answer to that which you desire, J say, and that in the words of truth, that the thing, as it is to me expressed, is very false, and therefore I have wrong done me by them that doe report it ; and I would desire you to know of my respected Freind the party that told you who they are that did report it.

It seemes they say, that I have said, that I would as soone heare the devill, as Doctor Stoughton, or M: Walker, which thing is very false, for I never said it, nor medled with any particular persons ; But yet thus much J have said, and still doe affirme and maintaine, and will at all times be ready to make it good, and seale it with my blood : That the Prelates all of them are Limbs of the Beast, spoken of Rev. 13 2. and also, that all those Officers and Ministers, that are made by them, are all of them Antichristian; the best as well as the worst ; And we have as good warrant to heare or give eare to the worst, as well as the best ; For I proved in my spech, that the best of the Ministers calling is as bad as the worst of them ; for they are all sent by the Prelates, Christs professed and knowne enemies, and they doe preach by vertue of their instituting of them, into the Office of Priesthood, unto whose power they submit and take an Oath of Canonick obedience; And

† this doe the best among them, (as well as the worst) that take upo them a Parochiall charge, for they are not sent from Christ, to preach the Gospell, or by vertue of his power, which he hath left in the bodies of his particular (not Nationall) Churches, to chouse or ordaine Officers to preach the Word; But by vertue of Antichrists power and authority; from whom they have as really their calling and power given them to preach, as those Officers that were ordained and instituted in the New Testament to preach Christs Gospell, had their power from him; and this ere long you shall see fully proved, though I be never hereafter able to set pen to paper.

Some thing concerning this I said in my speech, as in it you may reade, but it was but a little for the maine thing and strength of my Argument, was behinde, which I could not make knowne, by reason of the Gagge; But I looke and expect to come there againe, or to a worse place; and by the strength and might of my God; I will, come life, come death; speake my minde freely and couragiously; for I am studying to fit my selfe for it, and I doubt not but by the might of the Lord of Hosts, who is my strength and refuge, to reade them such a Lecture, that shall make the Beast roare, and blasphemie the God of Heaven for madnesse, though I be hewen in peeces when I have done;
For I feare neither the Devill, nor his Agents the Prelates, in this cause of my God, and the Lord hath sheltered me under the shadow of his wings, Psal 91 under whose protection I am secure and safe from all danger and harme, for though it seaze upon me, yet shall it not overcome me, therefore will I not feare what man can doe unto me, for God is my salvation, I will trust, and not be affrayde, for the Lord Te-ber. 12. 2. Exod. 15 2.

I have in part, in a brieve way, since I was whipped, declared my minde and judgement to some freinds, because I did feare false reports, and I am alwayes ready, according to the command of the Holy Ghost, to give an answer to every man that shall aske me a reason of the hope that is in me, with meekenesse & feare, 1 Pet. 3. 15.

And now desire to impart a little of my minde unto you, but for my owne part I will perswade no man to beleve me, nor no man whatsoever, but only to beleve Iesus Christ, speaking in the Scripture, it being the intire and absolute rule of Faith, and that unerring touchstone, that is able to try gold from drosse, neither would I have any to take upon them the profession of that way, the truth of which I am fully convinced off; and am able to any man breathing for my judgement to give a reason, and grounded answer; But for others my advice is to them, as one wishing well to the soules of all my Fellow Brethren and Sisters, Fellow heires of the same Kingdome with me, that they would not take up things lightly and slightly, but labour to get inward principles in their owne soules.

And

And to gett a ground and bottome for their owne spirits, for these things they profess and hold, that so they may not build upon the sand, but upon the unmoveable Rock, the Lord Iesus Christ, that shall never be shaken, that so they may, though all the power of darknesse set themselves againt them, yet that they may cleave close to God, & our Saviour Christ, and the purity of his Gospell, for we must looke for fanning and sifting, and for the fiery tryall; therefore let us sit downe and reckon, what it will cost us, and if we be not willing to lose all for his sake, yea and to have all even Father and Mother, riches & life, &c. if they stand in our way to keep us from him, we are not worthy o' him Matt. 10. 37. and 16. 24. Mark. 8. 34. Luke 9. 23. 24. and 14. 26. 27.

And for my owne part, the Lord himselve hath so firmly by his owne enlightening Spirit so fully convinced me, and settled my soule so unmoveably in his truth, that I assuredly know, that all the power in Earth, yea and the gates of Hell it selfe shall never be able to move me or prevaile againt me, for the Lord who is the worker of all my workes in me and for me, hath founded and built me upon that sure & unmoveable foundation the Lord Iesus Christ, and I know if ten thousand deaths for my conscience and the cause of my God, (for which with courage and rejoycing I now beare witness to, and am close prisoner in bonds, lying day and night in Fetters of Iron, both hands & legges) should be inflicted upon me, I should sing, rejoyce & triumph in them all; For my God makes me glory in my tribulation, and my soule is filled so full of that sweetnesse and joy, that it findes in my God alone that my tongue and penne is never able to the full to expresse & utter it, (to his praise I desire to speake it,) and I doe beleeve, that it is not possible for any man in any condition whatsoever (whose neck in the best doth stoope to the yoake of Antichrist) to have his heart and spirit elevated and lifted up above it selfe in that high degree, with spirituall joy and comfort, divine and heavenly strength and suppuration that mine is, for the Holy Ghost saith, they have no rest night nor day who wor'hip the Beast and his Image, and whosoever receiveth the marke of his name; And I doe beleeve it to be true, as I am able to speake by my owne experience; For they may have some spirit of rest and peace, and sudden Flashes o' joy and comfort, but when a storme or Tempest doth arise, they are so possessed, with base and cowardly feare and distraction o' spirit, that they are like men without hearts, and are ready to runne into every hole, to hide their heads from the face of man, a poore worme, being ready to say (when a tempest ariseth) with them in the 6. Rev. 16. 17. Let the Mountaine and Rock fall on us, and hide us from the face of him that sitteth on the Throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb, for the great day of his wrath is come, and who shall be able to stand; When as on the contrary, the Righteous is as bold as a Lyon, though the wicked fly when none perleueth, Prov. 28. 1. & 18. 10. The name of the Lord is a strong Tower, the Righteous runneth unto it and are safe.

And Psal. 91. he that dwelleth in the secret place of the most high, shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty, and he shall be safe from the feare of all danger, as the Holy Ghost there doth declare; So that we see the feare and terrour that possesseth the hearts and spirits of all those whose necks are either in part or in whole under the spirituall yoake and bondage of the Beast; And also the rest and peace, and holy security that they are in that submitt alone to the Lord Iesus Christ, for their spirituall Lord and King; And are willing to follow him, whersoever he goes, not loving their soules to the death, Rev. 12. but keepe close and hold fast the name and faith of Christ, even where Satan hath his Throne. Rev. 2. 13. for he hath said and promised unto his people that keepe close to him, because thou hast kept the word of my patience; I will also keepe thee from the hours of Temptation, which shall come upon all the World, to try them that dwell upon the Earth, Rev. 3. 10. And this have I found by experience, since the Lord in great mercy and rich loving kindnesse, by his strength and power inabled me to withdraw my soule totally and finally from the greatest spirituall yoake and bondage, that ever any mortall man groaned under, namely the spirituall yoake and bondage of the Beast, or Roman State, unto which, whosoever is hated of the Lord, and doth not belong unto him, doe submitt & yeeld, Rev. 9. 4. and 12. 7. 9 & 13. 3. But the Lord from all eternity hath loved me with his everlasting love, hath delivered my soule from it, and set me at liberty, and in a large place, and hath given me rest and ease, and hath put a song of prayer and thanksgiving into my mouth, unto the Lord of glory and the Lamb that sitts upon his Throne, who is blessed for ever and ever, and my God hath filled my soule so full of Heavenly matter, that had I but a current vent, I could ex tempore write an hundred Sheetes of paper to you, filled full of Heavenly expressions of the Lords goodnesse, faithfulnessse, loving kindnesse and Truth, for my soule is ravished with that fulnesse, sweetnesse, aimeablenesse, and beautifulnesse, that I finde in my God; Oh that my soule were altogether with him, that I might be satisfyed with his fulnesse, and might solace my soule face to face, which I most confidently know I shall in his due time; But, Oh I say againe and againe, that I were with him, for he hath crucified the World, and all things here below unto me; and hath enabled me to account and esteeme all things besides himselfe, as dung and durt, not being worthy of casting any affectionate eye upon them, Philip. 3. 8. 9. and he hath pitched my soule upon himselfe, as a naked and a single object, in whom alone the quintessence of delight, beaurie, and satisfaction is to be had, enjoyed, and possessed, and for my shackled condition that I am in, it is most sweete and pleasant to me, in which I am as merry, yea more chearefull, then ever I was in any condition in my life, and can sleepe as soundly in my Boots and Irons, as Peter did betweene the two Souldiers, when he was in prison, who when the Angell of the Lord came to him, to deliver him; He was faine to smite him, before he awaked, Acts 12. 5. 7. And I doe sing Psalmes, and I am as merry as Paul and Sylva were, when they were in the Stocks, and in prison, who sung Psalmes and Prayses at midnight, so that the Prisoners heard them, Acts 16. 24. 25. for the Lord hath so strengthened me with divine power and strength, for the Lord of Hosts is my confidence; And in the Lord Iehovah there is everlasting strength; And there is no torments, that the greatest Tyrans in the World can inflict upon me, that can make me miserable, sad, or discontented, for I know all my torments make but way for a greater degree of glory, which I am confident one day I shall be possessor off, and I long with Paul to be dissolved and to be with Christ, not out of any trouble or burdensonesse, that I finde or see in my present afflicted distressed condition, (according to the flesh) but to me it is sweete and joyfull in the Lord, and I know when the Lord hath fully tried me, and done his good pleasure with me, and by me, I shall come out of the Furnace purified and clesned from my grosse filth and corruption, Job 23, for the Lord already in part hath refined me, but not with Silver, for he hath chosen me in the furnace of affliction, Esay. 48. 10.

This by way of Preface or Apology for my selfe; And now I come to the matter.

And for my owne judgement, it beeing matter concerning the glory and prayse of my God, although I know it will be very displeasing unto the Pallets of many yea of my neare and deare freinds, from whom I have received expressions of love and kindnesse, whose loving affection, it may be, may be turned to a distast to a person, and my suffering, which if it bee, I shall patiently beare it, for the sincerity of my heart is knowne unto God, who is the searcher of the heart, and the tryer of the reines, Rev. 2. 23. Jer. 11. 20. and 17. 10. And I will call him to record, and to beare witness, that the glory of his great and holy name, is the single object of all my actions, undertakings, and proceedings; And if I shall incurre hatred therefore from my freinds, I shall comfort my selfe with that which my saviour hath said, which is that he came not to send peace on Earth, but a sword, for I am (saith he) to set a man at variance against his Father, and the daughter against her Mother, and the daughter in Law against her Mother in Law, Math. 10. 34. 35. Luke 12. 49 51. 53. and with that which Paul comforted himselfe with, if he could approve his heart to God, he did not care what man said of him, for saith he, doe I seeke to please men, for for if y<sup>e</sup> please men, I should not be the servant of Christ, Gal. 1. 10.

But now for my judgement, for my owne part, if I should never heare a Sermon while I live, yet I should never dare to heare one from any man, good or bad, that is made a Minister by the Prelates, or any of their Creatures, or by vertue of any of their muddy Antichittian Lawes, neither dare I have any spirituall communion with them, so long as they stand in their calling, in regard I am perswaded that he that heareth them sinneth, having no warrant out of the booke of God to doe it, and by undeniable consequence I will prove it, that whosoever heares them so long as they Officiat by vertue of their calling and power, which they have received from the Bishops, to preach, doth heare the Devill; for the Holy Chert saith, Rev. 13. 4. the subjects of the Kingdome of the Beast worshipped the Dragon, (that is to say the Devill, which gave power unto the Beast, and they worshipped the Beast, saying, who is like to the Beast, who is able to warre with the Beast.

Now, let us not thinke that they did fall downe to the Devil himselfe, and doe homage to him, face to face, for we never reade of any that did this, but the Holy Ghost doth here declare, that all those that stoope or yeeld in the least to the Lawes of the Beast doth worship & serve the Devill, from whom he hath received his power.

But all the Ministers doe stoope unto his Lawes, which none of them are able to deny, therefore they are as really his servants and subjects, all the time they doe so as they can be.

And we have no ground out of the Scripture to judge better of them;

As they are not the subjects and servants of Christ, that intyrelly doe not stoope unto his Lawes and Scepter; For is he, or can he be said to be a subject to the King of England, that stoopes, submits, & yeelds to the Lawes and Scepter of any other King, his greatest and professedst enemy upon the Earth.

No, without doubt; But they doe stoope to the Lawes of Antichrists Kingdome, who is the greatest and professedst enemy that ever Iesus Christ had in the World, as I will be ready to prove to the faces of the best of them in any publick disputation.

Therefore they are really and truly his servants; for his servant you are to whom you obey.

Now, Iesus Christ saith to his Disciples, he that heares you, heareth me, and he that heareth me, heareth him that sent me.

So on the contrary, he that heares the Ministers, heares the Prelates that made and sent them; And he that heares the Prelates, heares the Pope, that authorised & gave them their authority; And he that heares the Pope, heares the Devill, that gave him his power; So that I say we can can not partake with them in hearing, or in any administration of Gods sacred things, but we must of necessity partake of their calling and institution, by vertue of which they officiate and administer; And that I prove from Pauls words in the first of the Cor. 10. 18. Are not they which eate of the Sacrifice partakers of the Altar; Even so I say, are not they which partake of their administration, partakers of their institution? Yea without doubt or question. Now, for their institution, it is not from God (as I will maintaine against them all) therefore we are not to heare them, nor in the least to partake with them or their administration.

And for your better satisfaction seriously reade and weigh the 10. of Iob: And to me it seemes so cleare and plaine, that I doe not doubt but that we are not to heare any Ministers but those that are made by vertue of the Lawes and power of Christ, which he hath left to his Church, in his last will and Testament, which Lawes are unalterable and unchangeable to the end of the World, Acts 1. 3. 1 Tim. 6. 13. 2 Tim. 13. 14. 15. 17. Heb. 3. 1. 2. 6. Matt. 28. 19. 20.

But they are not made by vertue of the Lawes and power of Christ, but by the Lawes and Authority of Antichrist, and therefore we are not to heare them, for saith Christ, my Sheepe heare my voice, & I know them, and they follow me, and a stranger they will not follow, but will fly from him, for they know not the voice of strangers; Here you see Christ layes it downe, as a signe and a marke to know his Sheepe by, that they will not heare, nor give eare to false Shepheards.

But so are all the Ministers, for they come not in by the dore, but by a false power and Authority; namely, by the power of the man of sinne, Christis implacable enemy.

Therefore it is not Lawfull for any of Gods people, to heare them; For when the Prelates by vertue of his power, bids them, and Authorize them to preach, they doe preach; And when they command them to hold their peace, they are silent, and let their flock runne at randome; when as a good and true Shepheard layeth downe his life for his Shepheard.

Object. But many object and say, it is true, that their calling as it comes from the Prelates, is unlawfull, but they have an inward calling, for they are fitted for the worke of the Ministerie.

Ans. To which I answer and say. I reade or no inward calling, that any of those Officers had, that Christ or his Apostles did institute in the New Testament, for the Apostles had their calling from Christ, and the other Officers had their calling from the Churches, where they themselves were members, and over which, by the Lawes and power of Christ, they were made Officers.

But if the Ministers of Antichrist have an inward calling, I desire to see it proved by the Scripture; And as for their qualifications and fir-neſſe for the Miniſtrie. I deny, and ſay, that they are not qualified according to the command of Chriſt, by Paul to Timothy & Titus; And I doe affirme and will maintaine it, that no man ought to be Eleſted for the worke of the Miniſtrie, unleſſe he have all thoſe qualifications that is by the Holy Ghoſt ſet downe in the 1 Tim. 3. and the firſt of Titus.

Now, there is none of them, yea the beſt among them, that hath the qualification for a Biſhop, a Paſtor, or an Elder, which is all. One muſt not be a Novice, leaſt being lifted up with pride, he fall into the condemnation of the Devill. Alſo he muſt hold faſt the faithfull word as it hath been taught, that he may be able by ſound Doctrin, both to exhort and convince the gainſayers; But none of them have either of theſe, for they are ſo ſarre from being able to convince gainſayers by ſound Doctrin, that they are but novices in many things, and either wilfully or ignorantly are blinde of the naked wayes of God, being darkned with the ſmoake which came out of the bottomleſſe pitt, Rev 8.2. and I will juſtify it to the faces of the beſt of them, that they are enemies to the Kingly Office of Jeſus Chriſt, and the right government of his Church, both in practice and in judgement; and therefore are not fit (take them at the beſt) to be Paſtors over Chriſts Sheepe; Neither can any of them ſay as Paul did, Acts 20. That he was cleare of the blood of all men, in that he ceaſed not to declare unto them, the whole Counſell of God, which every faithfull Paſtor ought to doe; but none of them have done it, nor are able, for as I ſaid before, they are ignorant of it, and are enemies to it, as they doe witneſſe in their Pulpits, where they preach againſt the naked and pure wayes of God, and the Profeſſours of it, but none of them dare to enter the liſt of a Publiſh ſet diſpute.

Objec. I but ſay others they preach the Word of God, and that cannot be corrupted by their calling, but remaine the Word of God ſtill, therefore we may Lawfully heare it from them.

Anſw. I anſwer, they preach the outside of the Word, it is true, but the marrow and pith of it, they meddle but little with, for the beſt of them are yet ignorant of the marrow, of many choice Truths of God, for their underſtandings are ſo overſpred with the Foggie Milts of the darke and black Kingdome of Antichriſt, that they want ſpirituall eyes to ſee it; And behold it untill the Lord in mercy if ſo he pleaſe to open their eyes; And what though they doe preach the Word, they have no authority from God ſo to doe, if they have, let them ſtand up and ſhow it, and prove it; Not with human learning, but by the authority of the Scripture.

It is true, the Devill himſelfe preached Chriſt, and made a glorious confeſſion of him, ſaying: I know that thou art Jeſus the Chriſt, the Son of God, Mark 1 24.

This

This if it had come from one of Christs owne servants, it had been most acceptable, and well pleasing to him, but in regard it comes from the Devill, he will not owne it, but commands him to hold his peace.

It is very true, the Word of God is good and sweete, and a comfort to the soules of his servants, if it be preached by any that hath authority from Christ, we are bound to heare it; But the best of the Ministers have no authority or warrant from Christ to preach the Word, nor we to heare it from them, Iohn. 7. 2. 3 5. Hosea 9. 4. Psal. 50. 10.

But to the wicked saith God, What hast thou to doe to declare my Statutes, or that thou shouldst take my Covenant in thy mouth.

Now looke upon all of them to be such as God here speaks off in regard of their institution and standing, being visible members of Antichrists Kingdome; I doe not, nor will not meddle with their persons, nor no mans else, but only with their sinfull and wicked station and standing; Which as I am a subject to Christs Kingdome, and a prisoner in bonds and fetters of Iron, for his cause, I am bound in conscience for to doe it, Iudg 5 23. Curse ye Meroz (saith the Angell of the Lord) yea curse ye bitterly the inhabitants therein because they came not forth, to the helpe of the Lord against the mighty. Yea the Spirit of God saith; That they are blessed and happy that takes Babels Brants, and dash them against the stones, Psal. 137. 8 9.

But they are all Sonnes and Childrea of Spirituall Babel, or Babylon, Rev. 11. 8. and 14. 8, and 18. 2.

Now, by vertue of their being members of his Kingdome, we have no ground or warrant out of the Word of God, to heare them, for it is impossible to be a servant and a subject both to Christ and Antichrist; But they are subjects to Antichrists Kingdome; Therefore cannot be said truely to be subjects and servants to Christ.

For is not he properly a subject to the King of Spaine, that submits to his Lawes, and beares Office under him, by vertue of his authoritie; And can such men, while they doe so, be said and truely to be esteemed to be subjects to the King of England, unto whose Lawes they doe not submit; Without doubt they cannot. Even so can the Ministers or Preists (for so is their institution, who submit unto the Lawes of Antichrist, and beare Office under him, and execute their Office by vertue of his power and Authoritie, and therefore are his Servants and Subjects, and cannot truely be said to be the Servants and Subjects of Christ, unto whose Lawes they doe not submit.

Therefore we are not to heare them, or to have any thing to doe with them, Rev. 18. 4. 2 Cor. 6 17.

Againe, Mount Zion, that is to say, the Church of God is the place which God hath chosen, and hath promised his presence and blessing, Psal. 132. 13. 14. 15. and 83. 17. 2 Cor. 6. 16. Now, I would know where any of his people hath any warrant to seeke his presence and blessing any where but where he hath promised it; But he never promised it in the visible Assemblies of Antichrists Kingdome; Therefore we have no ground or warrant to seeke it there, or come there at all; Much more concerning this I have and am able to say, but I am above measure straightned, for want of a fitting opportunity; and therefore for your further satisfaction, repaire to the perusall of a little thing, called a declaration, where the people of God are to seeke his presence and blessing, only in Mount Zion, the City and Church of God, Psal. 45. 4. and 48. 1. 2. 8. Esay. 60. 14. and 62. 11. 12. and not in the Assemblies of Antichrist, being Cages of uncleane Birds, Rev. 18. 2. Esay. 13. 21. 22.

Againe, I see no ground or warrant, that any of Gods people have, to have any spiritual communion with them, in regard God hath commanded his people, at all times, very strictly, that they shall have no communion with Idolaters, nor their Idols, as the whole Booke of God doth declare; and I desire you to read the seventh of Deut: and there you shall see Gods strict command to that end. But the Ministers all of them are Idolaters, yea Idols themselves; Therefore we must have no communion with them. Now, that they are Idolaters, is as cleare as the Sun, that shines at noone-day; And that they are Idols, I am able to prove it to their faces; For an Idoll is nothing else according to the Scripture but a Creature or Creatures set a part, or instituted to worship God with or by, which he himselfe never ordained for that end and purpose; But such are all the Prelates Ministers, for they were never of his ordaining or instituting, but of his greatest enemies, the Pillars of Antichrists Kingdome, by vertue of whose power they officiate; Therefore they are Idols, whom all Gods people, that are faithfull Souldiers and leige Subjects, ought to be a meanes, and a helpe, to roote up and pull downe.

Now, this definition of an Idoll is not only according to the Scripture, but is given by the soundest Nonconformists themselves, as you may read in their Bookes, where they have strongly proved the Supplice, and the Crosse in Baptisme, and kneeling in the Act of receiving the Communion; And the rest of the Prelates instituted sacred Ceremonies, as they call them, saying in their Reasons before the Common-prayer, for the retaining of some Ceremonies, and the abolishing of others, that they are apt to stir up the dull minde of man; to the remembrance of some duty to God, by some speciall signification, whereby he might be edified.

Now, if you reade the Seers Discourses, which was printed at Leyden, in Holland, the last Summer, you shall there find strong reasons, to prove the Ceremonies Idols; and his maine Argument is, because they are not of Gods institution, but of sinfull mans ordaining.

Also that Noble and worthy Doctor (whom I so much honour and respect) Dobor Baywicke, in his Booke, called The Vanity and Impiety of the old Lcctary, doth prove it to be an Idoll, yea and calls it a damnable soule-murdering Idoll; And that upon the same ground, because it is not of Gods, but of mans institution, without any ground or warrant from God; and therefore is an Idoll, and is to be detested as an abominable Idoll. Now, what they say of the Ceremonies, and of the Service, the same I say of the Prelates, and all the Ministers that are made by them, and have their calling from the Bishops, they are Creatures set apart to worship God with or by, but were never of his instituting, or by vertue of his power, but by mans institution, and by vertue of the power of the greatest enemy that ever Iesus Christ had, or his Kingdome ever had on Earth, namely Antichrist, or the Kingdome of the Beast, Rev 9 3.7.10.11. and 13 6.7.16.17. and 12.6.7.15.17.

And therefore they are Idols, whom so long as they stand in their places and callings under the spirituall Antichristian authority, which they all submit to and subject themselves to, I shall not dare to have any spirituall communion with them, either in publicke or private, for what fellowship hath righteoussesse with unrighteoussesse; Or what communion hath light with darknesse; And what Concord hath Christ with Beliall? Or what part hath he that beleeveth with an Infidell? Or what agreement hath the Temple of God with Idols? Surely, none at all. Wherefore come you out from among them, and be you separate, saith the Lord, and touch no uncleane thing; and I will receive you, and will be a Father unto you, and you shall be my Sonnes and Daughters, saith the Lord Almighty, 2 Cor. 6.14. to the end, Esay. 52.11. Jer. 51.67. Rev. 18.4.5.

Besides this, though I am, and doe respect them as men, being the Creatures of God, and doe reverence them as they are privy Counsellours, and Head-members of the State; though it be not suitable in the least to their false pretended spirituall calling. But as they are Bishops and Officers in the Kingdome of the Beast, my knee and submission and reverence, shall by the strength of my God, be as little to them, as Mordecai was to proud Haman, who was King Abshurtes, Chere Favorite, being above all the Princes that were with him, Heb. 3.1. Yet Mordecai would not so much as bow to him, or doe him any reverence, verse the 3. though it doe procure me as much wrath from the, as it did Mordecai from Haman of whom the Holy Ghost saith, he was full of wrath, seeing Mordecai would not reverence him, Vers. 5.6.

Neither will I ever give baile to them, or part with any money, either to them or any of their Creatures, for any thing whatsoever, unlesse it be meerely for Temporall and Earthly things, in regard I doe beleve it is the duty of all Gods people, who desire to glorify him in their lives and conversations, and to shine as so many burning Lamps in the midst of a perverse and crooked generation, as they ought and should doe; Neither to bow finger, knee, or hatt unto any of them, or to doe them any reverence, as they are Bishops and Chiefe Pillars in the Kingdome of Antichrist, for by vertue of their calling and Office, they are the deadly and implacable enemies of God, and are so many pernicious and damnable Idols (by which God is exceedingly dishonoured) set up by the Devill in the Kingdome of the Beast, Rev. 9. 3. and 13. 2. 4. and 16. 13. 14. And I can prove it, that it was as Lawfull for the 3 Children, to worship or bow to Nebuchadnezars Idoll, as for Gods people to bow and doe homage to them.

And for my owne part, if they require of me any such, my answer shall be to them, as the 3 Children was to the King. Dan. 3. 16. 17. 18. Be it knowne to you Bishops and Doctors, I feare you not; or the God whom I serve and feare, is able to deliver me out of your hands, and from your Tyrannising crueltie; But if he doe not, be it knowne unto you, Oh ye Prelates, that I will not serve you, nor worship you, nor yeeld nor submit in any spirituall things unto you; And if I were at liberty, I would professe those Truths of God surely without feare, which he himselfe hath made knowne unto me; And if I were at any time taken by any of their Officers, I would not goe to prison with them, unlesse they carried me by force; Yet if it were the meanest Officer in the Kingdome that tooke me, that were made an Officer by vertue of the Kings Authority and power, I would submit unto him, and goe with him, whether he would have me, for I know the Kings Authority is from God; And if I should disobey it, I should disobey God, and sinne against God, and breake his Command, Rom. 13. And therefore I will obey him, his Lawes, and all those that beare his Authority, in all things they command or enioyne me; without any the least resistance at all, heartily from my heart, either actively or passively; for if they command me any thing that is not contrary to the Word of God, I will obey them actively; But if they command me any thing that is dishonourable to God or his Truth, I dare not in the least obey them actively, but say with the Apostle, whether it be fit to obey God or Men, judge ye, for we ought to obey God rather than Men, Acts. 5. 29. Yet I will submit my body to them, and suffer cheerfully, without any grudging any thing they shall inflict upon me, for I doe hold it unlawfull for any of Gods people, in their greatest Oppression by the Majestrate, to rebell or to take up any Temporall armes against them, whether the Oppression be in Spirituall or Temporall things, but only to pray and make use of Gods two edged Sword, Heb. 4.12. Rev. 12.15. and waite upon with patience for redresse and deliverance, and to seeke unto him for strength, that they may willingly and courageously suffer any Terrors or Torments that they will inflict upon them, for standing close to God, and his naked Truth and cause.

But to the Kingdome of the Beast, these members of which the Prelates are, will I never itoope by the might of the Lord of Hosts, nor have any spirituall communion with them, for the Lord hath expressly commanded me and all his people to have nothing to doe with Idols, nor with Idolaters, 1 Cor. 10. 14. 1 Iohn 5. 21. Exod. 23. 33. Deut. 7. 1. 2. 3. 4 5. and 12. 3. Now, they are the greatest Idolaters that euer were in the world, and the most pernicious Idols, that are upon the Earth. Rev. 9. 20. & cap. 17. for they have a golden Cup put in their hands, it is full of abomination & filthines, & with it they dazle the eyes of the world, & make it to comit close & middē fornication, & Idolatrie, which is the greatest and most dangerous Idolatrie that is, for they couer their wickednesse and deceivableness over with the Name of the Lamb, but for all that doe the deeds of the Dragon. Rev. 13. 12. Iohn 3. 44. But if they professed Idolatry openly to the eyes of the World, the people would detest them, but they doe it closely and covertly, and therefore are not so easily discerned, but deceive very many, Math. 24. 5. And therefore the Beasts Kingdome is called, as it is indeed, the Misterie of iniquitie, 2 Thess 2. 7.

Now, I will maintaine it, that the Kingdome of the Beast is the greatest Idol that ever was in the World, and the greatest plague that ever God sent into the World, as the Revelation of Saint Iohn doth declare, and as appeares by the expressions of the Spirit of God, in the 8. Chapter, where we may read, that when the 4. First Angels had sounded their Trumpets, mighty and horrible plagues then followed them, worse and more great were to come after, as appeares by the vehement expressions and calling out of the Holy Ghost, with a loud voice, Verse the last; Saying, Woe, Woe, Woe to the inhabitants of the Earth (reiterating 3 times together) by reason of the other voices of the Trumpet of the three Angels which are yet to sound. For why the fifth Angell in the first Verse of the next Chapter sounded, then followed a mighty & horrible plague to all the inhabitants of the world; The like whereof was never heard off before, and that is the smoake that came out of the bottomlesse pitt, which was that horrible darknesse, and spirituall blindness and sottish ignorance that seized upon the World, during the time of the Beasts Kingdome; which was so great, that the visible face of a Church of Christ could not be found upon the Earth, for the heavens departed as a scroll together, Rev. 6. 14.

And

And out of this smoake or darknesse came the Locusts the beasts officers or Clergy, which are a multitude in number, there being in the Kingdome of Antichrist at this day above an hundred severall Officers; Whereas in the Kingdome of Christ there is but 5. Namely, Pastor, Teacher, Elder, Deacon, and Widdow, Rom. 12. 7. 8. Ephes. 4. 11. Phil. 1. 1. 1 Tim. 3. 1. 2. and 5. Titus 1. 5. 7.

Againe, the Spirit of God pronounceth another woe to the inhabitants of the Earth and of the Sea, for the Devill is turred downe unto you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time, the like expression we read not of in the whole Booke of God, nor that there were any such plagues since the beginning of the World; As those were which came along with the Kingdome of the Roman Beast, as the Stories of all ages, since his beginning, is able to witnesse and prove, for men worshipped the Devill, and committed such horrible wickednesse, for which God sent such mighty plagues upon them, as the like before was never heard off before in the world, as the whole Booke of the Revelation doth witnesse; Therefore of all Idols that ever were in the World, Gods people have most cause of all to detest, abhorre, and abominate the Idolaters and the Idols in the Kingdom of the Beast, & whosoever the Lord loves he will deliver from them, Rev. 20. 4. But those that are his enemies; and hated of him, shall continue in subjection to it, Rev. 9. 4 and 13. 8. and 14. 9. 10. 11. and 19. 20. Pro. 2. 18. 19. and 5. 5. and 7. 27. and 9. 18.

Now, the time of the raigne and durance of the Kingdome of the Beast, in the 11. Rev. 2. is said to be 42 moneths, and in the 12. Rev. 14. it is called a time times and halfe a time, which is three yeares and a halfe; And in the first Verse of this Chapter, it is termed to be 1260 dayes, which is just 42 moneths, reckoning 30 dayes to every moneth, and it makes also three yeares and a halfe, accounting 12 Moneths to every yeare; and this is the time of the Raigne of the Beast, or the durance of Antichrists Kingdome; Which if we reckon each day for a yeare, as the Lord himselfe in Scripture doth, as we may read when the Spies that went from the Tents of Israell, at the Lords command, to search the Land of Canaan, which they were a doing 40 dayes; And at their returne they gave out an evill report of it, which made the people to sinne and rebell against God, and not to give credit to his word, Oath and promise, which was to bring them into the Land of Canaan, to give it to them, notwithstanding the greatnesse and potency of the Heathen, for the Lord himselfe had promised to cast them out, but because they beleved him not, but rebelled against him, fearing the strength and power of the Heathen, the Lord would make them to wander in the barren and desert Wildernesse 40 yeares. For faith he, after the number of the dayes, in which ye searched the Land even 40 dayes, each day for a yeare, shall you beare your iniquities, even 40 yeares, and you shall know my breach of promise, Numb. 24. 34. Ezek. 4. 5. 6. where God saith thus to the Prophet : I have laid upon thee the yeares of iniquity, according to the number of the dayes, three hundred and ninety dayes, so shalt thou beare the iniquity of the House of Israel ; and when thou hast accomplished them, lye againe on thy right side, and thou shalt beare the iniquity of the house of Judah 40 dayes, I have appointed each day for a yeare. So that if we expound the 1260, by these 2 places of scripture, reckning as God him self doth each day for a yeare; which I verily beleeve is the right meaning of the Holy Ghost ; We shall finde that the Beasts Kingdome shall endure from the beginning to the end 1260. yeares; For I see no ground that these places should be expounded litterally for three yeares and a halfe, and no more, for it is impossible that Antichrist should doe all these strange things, in so short a time, that is said, he shall doe & fulfill, therefore without doubt it must be expounded each day for a yeare, for the man of sinne was working in the Apostles time, but the Emperour who letted him, kept him out of his seate till he was taken away, 2 Thes. 2. 7. Now, during the time of Antichrist, the Holy Cittie, or the true Church of God, is to be troden under foote, Rev. 11. 2. and to be in a sad and afflicted condition, and to be persecuted by the beast, and the members of his state & Kingdome all that time, Rev. 13. 7. 15. and Chapt. 12. though now and then she should have some breathing and refreshing times; And when Antichrists Kingdome growes to an end, (which blessed be God doth hasten apace,) the Foggie Mists of darknesse, blindness and ignorance, which is the smoake that the Holy Ghost saith, came out of the bottomlesse pitt; Rev. 9. shall in some measure be dispeld, and the Beames of Truth and spirituall light, shall breake and shine out, as is plaine in the 10. 14. and 16. Chapters; for then the Booke of Life the Holy Scripture is opened, which in former ages lay altogether hid, and in a manner shutt up in obscurity & darknesse, as appears plainly out of the 11. Chapt. Therefore let us not wonder, nor think it strange that the eyes of spirituall understanding, (which is to know, see & embrace the naked Truths of God,) is opened of so few of the great and famous men, in the eye of the World, but continue still enemies to the bare & naked Truths of God, for the Kingdome of the Beast is not yet destroyed, & the smoake of the bottomlesse pitt hath so darkened the Sunne & the aire, that the spirituall eyes of few mens understandings, are opened to see & take notice of the intyre Truths of God, yet notwithstanding let us take heede, that we be not offended & stumble to our destruction; Luke 20. 17 18. 1 Pet. 2. 8. at the naked wayes and cleare and pure Truth of Christ, because they are but few and meane in the estimation of the World, that doth embrace them and professe them, for the Church of Smirna, though shee were but poore and meane in the eye of the World, yet shee was rich in Gods account , because she kept close to his naked wayes and Truths, Rev. 2 9. whereas on the contrary proud and haughty Laodicea, who was full of outward riches and treasures; And wanted nothing that might make her glitter & shine in the eyes of the world, yet notwithstanding is odious in the sight of God, because she was lukewarme and neither hot nor cold, for he threatens to spew her out of his mouth; doe you your selve make the application; Likewise let us take notice of that thanksgiving, which Christ gives to his Father: I thanke thee oh Father , Lord of Heaven and Earth , because thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent , and hast revealed them to Babes, even so Father , for so it seemed good in thy sight, Math. 11. 25. 26.

The naked purity and Truth of the Gospell of Christ, is too homely a thing, for the great learned Doctors of the world, to imbrace, stoope and submit unto; for Christ hath said, that the professors of it shall be hated of all men, yea of their parents, kindred, and Freinds, Luke 21. 16. 17. Marke 13. 12. and are accounted as Sheepe to the slaughter, all the day, I Cor. 4. whose condition is to be afflicted and percieved here by the men of the world, Iohn 15. 18. 19. and 16. 2. 3. 33. Heb. 12. 4. 6. 7. 8. for there must and will be to the end of the World enmity betweene the seede of the woman and the seede of the Serpent, Gen. 3. 15. and therefore false Teachers and seducers , though they come in the name of Christ , and preach part of his Gospell, Math. 7. 5; and 24. 5. yet they are enemies to Christ , the purity of his Truth and people, though they make a flourishingshow in the flesh, yet because they love not the Crosse of Christ, which alwaies goes alonge, and is inseperable from the zealous and strict profession of him and his Truth, Prov. 3. 11. 12. Heb. 11. Rev. 3. 19. nor will they part with their ease pleasure and fatt morsels, Esay 65. 10, 11, 12. nor suffer persecution with the people of God, for the Truth of God, as Moses did, Heb: 11: 25. Therefore they will neither imbrace the purity of the Truth, nor willingly let thoe that would, Gal: 6: 12. Yet for all that though they will not , yet all those that desire to approve their hearts and spirits unto God, and to glorifie him both in their lives & deaths, must not forsake his Truth, for feare of persecution, or losing of their kindred, or Freinds, Gal: 5: 11: Math: 10: 33: Marke 8: 34: 38: Luke 14: 26: for here Christ himselfe saith, that he that loveth Father or Mother, or his owne life , or any thing else mote then him , shall never possesse nor enjoy him, neither here nor hereafter ; For he saith : He that denies him or his Truth before men , him will he denie before his Father which is in Heaven. Therefore in regard the Gospell of Christ, in the strict profession of it, is so meane, contemptible and burdensome a thing in the blinde and darke eyes of the World , and lyes under the reproach and ignominy of the men thereof , the great
Rab-

Rabbies doe stumble at it, and doe not imbrace it, 1 Cor: 13: 20: for it is written saith God, I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nought the understandings of the prudent, where is the wise, where is the scribe, where is the disputer of this world: hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world Isa: 29. 14. & 33. 18. Oba: verse 8. Therefore in regard the great Doctors of the world doe not imbrace the ways of God: the multitude stumble at them, likewise being ready to say with them Io: 7, have any of the Rulers or of the Pharises belceued on him, but this people who knoweth not the law & are accursed. Even so say men in these daies, of the naked truths and waies of God: do any of the Rulers or Nobles, or do the great & learned Doctors & famous Divines: imbrace and practicethese strict and rugged waies, but onely a companie of Brownists, who are the base and obscure fellows of the world, and a companie of foolish singuler people, conremning and censuring all besides themselves, as though none should be saved but they onely.

To you: Oh yee spirituall blind people, whose vnderstandings are darkned with the smoake of the bottomlesse pitt, and whose braines are intoxicated and drunke with the glittering and gilded Cup of spirituall fornication & abomination, of the scarlet whore Reuel: 17.

To you I answer, and know you that the way to heaven is narrow and strait, and Christs fold and flocke, but a small & little company in comparison of the world, Math: 7. 14. Luke 13. 24. Also know that God hath not called many wise men after the flesh, nor many mighty, nor many noble, but God hath chosen the foolish things of this world, to confound the wise, and God hath chosen the weak things of this World, to confound the things that are mighty; and the base things of the World, and things which are despised, hath God chosen, yea and things which are not, to bring to naught things that are; And he himselfe gives the reason of it, that no flesh should glory in his presenee, 1 Cor. 1. 26 27 28. 29. And Iames tells us, that God hath choten the poore of this World, rich in faith, and heires of the Kingdome, which he hath promised to them that love him, James 2 5.

And what though the Rabbies and great Doctors be learned, yet it is but Earthly and humane learning, which Paul had before his conversion, for he was a Pharise brought up at the feete of Gamaliel, a great learned Doctor of the Law had in reputation among all the people: Act: 5. 34. and 22. 3. But yet when he came to the true spirituall knowledge of true spirituall learning indeed, which is taught to all Christs Schollers, lesse or more, that are brought up in his Schoole, he renounced his humane Schollership, and accounted it no better then dung or dirt Phil: 3. 5. 7 8.

But besides him, we read of none of the Apostles, that were learned in that learning, which the blinde world accounts learning and Schollership lership, for they were all or most of them poore men, brought up in obscure and base callings many of them being no better then poore Fishermen; yet when Christ called them, he indued them with spirituall learning, which is the true learning indeed; Acts 2. 1. &c. And those in the new Testament, that are commended for their learning, it was because they were filled with the gifts of the Spirit, and were mighty in the Scriptures, Iohn 7. 38. 39. Acts 18. 24. 1 Cor. 12. 3. 7. 8. 10. and 14.

By all which places of Scripture we see, that the learning which made the Apostles famous, was not human learning, (for none of them had it but Paul, and he renounced it,) but it was heavenly learning, which came from God, being the gift of his Holy Spirit. And for all the rest of those which they ordained (by the power and Authority which they had from Christ) to officiate in the Churches, and to administer the sacred and holy things of God, to his chosen and sanctified ones, (for none but them have true right to Christs ordinances,) it was spirituall knowledge, divine learning, and insight into the Scripture, which are the gifts of the spirit of God, as is before proved; which made them fitt for those Offices, that they were chosen to by the Church, and ordained by the Apostles, for they were not to be Novices in the Mysteries and wayes of God, but found in the Faith, and also of a holy and Godly life and conversation, which the Apostle calls a good report, and to have the rest of those qualifications, which he layes downe in 1 Tim. 3. and 5. Chapters, and Titus 1. And whosoever have not these qualifications, are not fitt (according to the Apostles command there) to beare Office in the true Church, which is the spirituall Sion, Citty, & House of God; Psal. 87 2. 3. and 132. 13. 16. Esay. 33. 20. 21. and 52. 1. Heb. 12. 22. Rev. 20. 9, and 12. 2.

Now, that Heavenly learning, and gifts of the spirit, which the Lord under the time of the Gospell, doth bestow upon his chosen and holy ones, doth fulfill the Prophecies of the Prophets in old time, who Prophesied of the same things, Esay. 44 3. 4, and 54. 13; Ier. 31; Joel 2. 28; saying: And it shall come to passe afterward, that I will poure out my spirit upon all flesh, and your sonnes and your daughters shall prophesie, your old men shall dreame dreames, and your young men shall see visions, and also upon the hand-maide in those dayes will I poure out my spirit.

Oh! the simplicity, sweetenesse and pleasantnesse of the wayes of God, if we had but inlightened spirituall understandings, to see, behold and looke into them, which if we had, they would ravish our soules, rejoyce our spirits, and fill our hearts full of gladnesse; But they are sealed and will be hid from us, till the Lord in his rich mercy & loving kindnesse, be pleased to anoynt our eyes with spirituall Eye-salve, and take away these Foggie Mists of darknesse & scales of ignorance that hang hang upon our understandings; 1 Cor. 2. Oh! that the Lord would be pleased to deale so graciously with us, that we might be fooles & Idiots, emptie & vile in our own eyes, that so we might nakedly lye at the footstool of Iesus Christ, and seeke for wisdom & spirituall understanding, from him, & him alone, according as it is our duty & the the command of wisdom; Prov. 1. 4. 8, and 9. Chapters. But alas, alas, we have haughty hearts & proud spirits of our owne, and seeke to be something in our selves, and doe not labour to be weaned from all things, in our selves, as is our duty; for we should nakedly goe out of our selves, and this we shall know to be true if ever the Lord come truly and thoroughly to instruct and teach us in his spirituall, heavenly wisdom; It is the greife of my soule, to see people take such paines, for that which will not profit; And to lay out their silver for that which is not worth the buying; Esay. 55. 2. Being very zealous in professing the seeming way of God, and yet are full of ignorance & blindness, in the true wayes of God, wanting that true spirituall sanctified knowledge, and cleare insight into the Scripture, which is taught by the spirit of God, that being true of them, which is said in Esay. 59. That they grope for the wall like blinde men; yea and grope as if they had no eyes, stumbling at noone-day, as in the night, being in desolate places, as dead men, not knowing that a deceived heart hath turned them aside; being not able to say, that there is a lye in their right hand, as the Prophet in another place speakes: But unto all such in the words of the spirit of God, I say, behold all you that kindle a fire, that compasse your selves about with sparkes, walke in the light of your fire, and in the sparkes that you have kindled; But saith God, this shall you have of my hands; Ye shall lye downe in sorrow, Esay: 50. 10.

Because that it is a shame even in the eyes of the World, for a man to be of no Religion; Therefore people take upon them the outward forme of Religion, but are destitute of the inward power of godliness, going on in a formall way of Religion, with muddy, earthie, and un-sanctified affections, but doe not strive, study & labour, as they ought to get inward principles, & true grounds in their owne soules, that so they may be built upon that sure & unmoveable foundation, that never can be shaken; But build upon sand, hay and stubble; as the Apostle speakes; And therefore that building will come to ruine, when stormes & Tempests doth arise, as too true experience, hath, doth & will manifest & declare, for when men are not soundly settled in the true way, they cannot possible have that true inward peace, which God hath promised to his faithfull ones; But their spirits & hearts are full of feares & distractions, in time of danger and calamity, I appeale even to the hearts and spirits, even of people themselves that are not as yet convinced and settled in the right and true wayes of God.

Sure I am, I am able to speake it by my selfe; and doe speake it in the presence of my God, who knowes my heart, and trieth my reines, Rev. 2. 23. that I have found it true, by former experience; for the Spirit of God saith, there is no peace to the wicked, Esay. 48. 22, and 57. 21. Now, while a man is out of the true wayes of God, and is in the by-wayes of sinne and wickednesse, he cannot truly according to the revealed will of God, be tearmed any otherwise, then a wicked man; Though notwithstanding his soule may be pretious to God; But we are not to judge according to the secret will, but only to judge according to the revealed will of God, for secret and hidden things belong to God, but revealed things to us and to our children, as Moses faith.

But all those that are members of the Kingdome of Antichrist, (as all that submit to the Prelates and their Lawes are) are out of the true wayes and pathes of God, and are in the bye and crooked way of sin and wickednesse; And therefore we have no grounded warrant out of the Scripture, the revealed will of God, to judge or esteeme of them any otherwise but as wicked men, who in that estate cannot be possessours of that true and settled peace and spirituall comfort and joy, that God doth bestow vpon his faith seivants.

Now as for the prooffe of this argument, tis every branch & part of it proved in the foregoing discourse; but on the contrary I can truelie speake it, that my soule had never before, that true rest, quietnesse, and sweete inward spirituall peace: that I have been and am still possessour of, since my God gaue me streng:h, might & power, to shake of that Antichristian yoake, and all communion with his lawes & subjects. And my soule is filled so full of true rest and peace, that all my torments and sufferings, and the greatnesse and potency of my adversaries, the chiefe of which is the Divell the prince of this world, (working in and by his sonne the Prelate of Canterbury) doth not in the least terrifie or trouble mee, but I am merry and cheerefull in the midst of the verietie of my sufferings, for the Lord makes me to triumph over them all, and I know and beleue that if all the Divels in hell, and all his Limbs vpon the earth: do bend themselves against me to overthrow me, yet they shall never make me sadd, for the Lord hath given me a cheerfull and merry heart, which whosoever hath, Salomon faith, baith a continuall Feast, Prov. 15. 15, nor make me feare or be affrayde of them, for God is my salvation, I will trust add not be affrayde of them, for God is my salvation, the Lord Iehovah is my strength, and my song, he also is become my salvation, Esay. 12. 12. And though the youths doe fainte and be weary, and the younge men utterly faile, yet they that waite vpon the Lord, shall renew their strength, they shall mount up with wings as eagles, they shall runne and not be weary, and they shall walke & not be faint, Esay. 40. 30. 31. For the Lord is a strength strength to the poore, a strength to the needy in his distresse, a refuge from the storme, a shadow from the heate, when the blait of the terrible one is as a storme against the Wall, Esa. 25. 4. and the spirit of God saith: that he will keep him in perfect peace whose minde is staied on him, therefore in the Lord will I trust for ever. For in the Lord Iehovah is everlasting strength Esa: 26. 3. 4. and the Lord saith, he keeps his Church and will water it every moment least any hurt it, yea J will keep it night and day saith he. Now I am a true member of it, and therefore haue right and share of the benifict of this promise, and assuredly knowe that the Lord will so keep me (though I be in the midst of the fire) that mine enemies shall not preuaile nor hurt mee, & though all men forsake me, yet hee will take care of me and provide for me: the young lions shall want & suffer hunger, but they that loue and feare the Lord, shall want no good thing.

But my loving friend, am I become your enemy (because in publicke) I haue spoken the truth, let not your anger and displeasur be further incensed against me, when you haue read this that is here written; J hope you would not haue me, who haue begun in the spirit, to be made perfect in the flesh; Oh God forbid that ever I should so much as entetaine the least thought of that, and therefore know that this is my setled resolution, which the Lord hath wrought in my heart. And for this I will spend and be spent, and be puld in ten thousand peices: before I will in the least deny my God, and his naked truth, or the least tittle of that which he himself by his holy spirit hath made known vnto me 1 Cor. 2. 10. 11. 14. And further knowe that all my kindred according to the flesh, hath deserted and forsaken me, in my present condition. But if all my friends (yea and Christian Brethren also) in the the world, should be offended with me, for sticking close to my good cause, and if they should all forsake me and leaue me naked to the world, yea though I starue & rott in Prison, (as I know I shall not) for as long as there was a peice of bread in the bakers street, Ieremias wanted not in his distresses, and I know Ieremiahs God is my God, & wil do the like for me as he did for him, if need require. But if J should be like to starue in Prison, yet wil I never in the least, by the strength & might of my God, feare my enemies, or loue my friends: so much as to deny the least of his truths, for their threatnings or cruelty, or for their faunings, flattering, and deceiueable perswasions, for I know if my friends do leaue me and forsake me: yet the Lord will stand by mee, support, and vphold me, in the midst of the greatest of my tryalls, distresses and afflictions, and in due time deliver me from the mouth of the Lyon, for he did thus with Paul, when he was to answer before Nero, for his life and Doctrine, at which time all forsocke him, yet the Lord stood by him and delivered him, 2 Tim. 4. 16. 17. 18. And I know he will doe so for me too, for he hath filled my soule so full of his strength, to strengthen me in my greatest tryalls; and of his presence & comfort, to comfort me in my present afflictions, that I know I can live by faith in every condition, whether in hunger or nakednesse in want scarcity, in prison or in dungeon, or exile or in banishment. And in my present afflicted and chained condition, I have and do possess all that my soule can desire: for I have God & Christ & his holy spirit, and have rest, true peace and ease, and though I be in bonds & fettered with Irons, lockes and chaines, yet I am at liberty, for my heart & spirit is mightily enlarged, also I have full satisfaction, contentednes, yea the world & all, 1 Cor: 3.22.23. & for my outward condition, I have not a troubled thought about it, for it doth not in the least molest me; for I can truly with Withers, in the beginning of his Motto; say:

I neither have, nor want, nor care for.

When I have the least, then I have a feast; and I having that, I know God will continue it, and for my owne part, I neither long for, nor earnestly desire more dainties & varieties then there is at a feast, and I feast every day; and therefore have no want of good things, yea did but my enemies truly know in how rich and plentiful a condition I am in, they would bite off their fingers ends, for to heare of my prosperous and happie estate, in the midst of their cruelties, for I have found and got such riches since I came to Prison, that I thinke the like is not to be got abroad in the world. And of all conditions vnder heaven, in my judgement (a prison and an afflicted condition, for the truth and cause of Christ, and the testimonie of a good conscience) is the most happie and rich condition: for then Gods holy ones grow in grace and Godlinesse, like tall Cedars in Libanon, and get great & large experience of Gods goodnesse, faithfulnessse and kindnesse, as I am able to speake it, by grounded experience. And though my Adversaries are learned in the Phariseicall, Philosofical, deceivable learning of the world As: 5.34. & 22.3. compared with Phill: 3.5 8. Coll: 2. and have studded and beat their braines, in their Vniuersities and else where, for many yeares together, yet in one fixe moneths, in a Prison and fettered condition: I have got more true spirituall learning and knowledge, in the misteries of Godlinesse, then is amongst them all; therefore when they sent me to Prison, they did more for me, then if they had given me ten thousand pounds, for they have sent me to heaven vpon earth: for so I haue found it. And so farr I am from being overcome, by their vnheard of cruelty (to submit and make a base recantation, as they would haue me) which they haue & do still exercise vpon me, in a high degree, that I am ten times stronger then I was at the first, and the next act of cruelty that they shall inflict vpon me, will make me twenty times as strong as I am, and the next act of cruelty after that, will make mee as vnmoveable as Mount Sion; which can-cannot be moved, but abideth for ever Pfal: 125. 1. Prou: 10. 30. And as the hatred & displeasur of my friends (which is the greater tryall of the two) which I haue incurred from them by reason of my judgment and Conscience, I will carrie my selfe by the help & assistance of my God, like an innocent & harmelesse lamb of Christ; yet will I never in the least, either for their love or displeasure, forsake or renounce the least Truth, that the Lord in great mercy hath manifested and made known unto me, since I came to prison. For before I was not only a Novice, but a very Idiot in the right wayes of God, having muddy affections, but wanted inward principles, having fiery zeale, but it was without grounded spirituall knowledge; But now the Lord hath made knowne to me, by his spirit, the way wherein to serve and worship him; And he hath made me by his power and strength as unmoveable as an Iron Pillar, or a Brazen Wall; And if they doe not in matters of Religion returne unto me, I shall I hope fulfill that command of God given unto Jeremy in the 15. Chapt: 19. that I shall not in the least returne unto any of them, though I be ever accounted by them as an alien and stranger to them.

Againe, I desire to lett you know, that upon the pillary I challenged all the Bishoppes in England to dispute with them, upon this proposition, to prove the Popes power and authority from the Devill, and that their power, authority, and jurisdiction and calling, in which they stand at this day, is from the Pope, and so originally from the Devill as well as his.

But these Episcopall Rabbies, who are Cheife members of the Kingdome of Darknesse, had no other Argument to convince me with, then to put a Gagg in my mouth, leatt I should have shaken the foundation of their Antichristian Kingdome, publicly at the Pillary, and leatt the people (forsooth) should be infected with my speeches, which in their account and estimation, are no better then scandalous, factious, and seditious; when as indeed they were the words of nothing but the naked Truths of God, and did not in the least meddle with the persons of any, or with any temporall state matters, with which I have nothing to doe and say unto; And therefore they could neither be factious, nor seditious, unlesse the Booke of God be faction and sedition, which were blasphemy once to thinke; But indeed with the Prelates every thing that is said or written againtt their spirituall Babilonian wicked Kingdome, is counted faction and sedition; for indeed they have no other arguments, to maintaine their tottering and languishing Kingdome, but Clubb Law, that is to say, tyranny, blood-thirstinesse and cruelty; But take that Argument and Weapon away, and then a Child will disarme them, and beate them, and take away their Weapons from them; And then to ruine and destruction will their decaying Kingdome come, and also the Weapons that I exhorted ted and perswaded the people of God, to draw out against the Prelates, those Spirituall Adversaries of the Kingdome of the Lord Iesus Christ; was not any temporall sword or Weapon, but only the two edged sword of Gods Word, spoken off Hebrews 4 12. And they are more described in the sixth of the Ephes. Also the next day after my sufferings, by Mr. Ingram the Warden of the Fleete, I sent this Challenge in particular to the Bilhop of Conterbury. and earnestly intreated him, to deliver it to himselfe, that I would dispute with him before all the Nobles and Peeres of this Kingdome; And if I were not able to prove that his calling and power is from the Devill, I would be willing to lose my head. But I pray you, take notice of his great learned Arguments, which he used to confute me, and defend himselfe; which were these:

Let him be lockt up close prisoner, in the basest place in the Wards of the Fleete; for so runne the words of the Order; and let none come at him, least he should infect any of the people with his errours, and so be a meanesto bring ruine and destruction upon his Spirituall Kingdome.

Oh! Scholasticall Arguments indeed; Alas! poore man, are your eyes so sore, that they cannot endure to looke upon the Sunne, or your back so gawled, that you cannot endure to be touched; it seemes they are, or else you would never have been affrayde to have met a youngeman in the open feild, to have tryed out the goodnesse of your cause, who desires no other Weapons against you but the Bible, the Word of Life, and infallible judge of all Controversies, and the Liberty of my Tongue, to speake freely without any gagging; And yet you are affrayde, and dare not meete me in a publicke dispute; As poore, weake and feeble men, let me speake in the words of the spirit of God unto you, Ier: 12. if you have runne with Foote-men, and they wearied you, then how can you contend with Horses; And if in the Land of peace, wherein you trust, they have wearied you, how will you then doe in the swellings of Jordan; That is to say, if you be affrayde of me a younge beginner in the wayes of God; Or if you dare not venture in the Land of peace, where you have the Temporall power and sword at command, to incounter with me a stripling, that never studied Philosophy, Logick, Rhetorick, nor euer was at any Vniversity, to learne any Lattin, Greeke, or Hebrew. How will you doe in the swelling of Jordan, when your temporall power shall be raken away from you, and strange men of great parts fall upon you, and make open spirituall warre against you. Surely, you will never be able to stand, for already your Pillars that hold up your Kingdome, are growne so rotten, that they cannot endure to be roughly handled or touched; And therefore without doubt ere long your building must needs fall, and therefore looke to your heads, and take notice, that I have given you warning of it , least you repent when it is to late.

Againe, upon Thursday, the 17. or 18. of May last, I was had before Sir Iohn Bancks, and Mr. Littleton, the Kings Attourney and Soliciter Generall, to be examined what I said at the Pillory, before whom I expressed my minde so freely, that they were willing and desirous that I should hold my peace, and laboured with me by fleshly Arguments, as Peter did with Christ, to save my selfe.

But before them I made this challenge, and desired them to tell it to the Bishops, that I would dispute with them all before my Dread Sovereigne, (whose faithfull, loyall, and humble subject I am) to prove their calling so farre from being of God, (as they affirme it is) that it is from the Devill; And if I were not able to prove it, (or if I delivered any thing in the proove of it, that deserved death,) I would not refuse to dye, or if I held any errors, if they could by the Authority of the Scripture, confute me, I would publickly recant them. But their Arguments & replicatiō to this my challeng, was: Lay him fast in Iron chains, Armes, and Leggs, coupled together: And let him lye in them night and day; And let neither gold nor money, nor bookes, nor writings, nor any other thing be brought unto him, from his freinds; And let none come to him, to speake with him; And if any come to aske for him, take notice of their name and place of habitation, that so we may overcome him with crueltie and Tyrannie, and make him submit, for if we doe it not by these meanes, he will hardly be brought unto it; And therefore Warden of the Fleete looke to it, have a speciall care of him, that none come to have any talke with him, or give him any thing, that so we may by Tyrannie, Crueltie and Torments, overcome him, for he leads away a multitude of people, and causes them to follow him; And he is of such a lofty high spirit, that if he goe on in the way, he will spoyle our tottering Kingdome; And therefore put to your best assistance, to see if by any meanes you can overcome him, to get him to submit. This was the effect of their speech.

Oh! Brave Episcopall Arguments indeed. But I pray you, did ever Christ or his Apostles, or any of his Servants, use any such Arguments, to overcome or convince those that were opposite to them in judgement? No verily; for in the whole New Testament, we doe not read that any of *Christ*s servants, for spirituall things, used any such Weapons, or Clubb Arguments, as these; for they used nothing but spirituall Weapons, to overcome ther enemies; And with the sharpe two edged sword of Gods Word; Heb. 4. 12. Rev. 19. 15; they sought against their Adversaries, by this and by this alone, they did overcome them; And Peter with this one Weapon did strike downe three thousand of them at a blow, and made them yeeld subjection to the Kingdome of Christ; Acts 2. And we never reade of any temporall Weapon that they made use of to defend themselves against their Opposites;

For, saith Paul, the Weapons of our warfar are not carnall, but mighty through God, to the pulling downe of strong holds, and casting downe imaginations; and every high thing that exalteth it selfe against the knowledge of God, & bringing into captivity every thought into the obedience of Christ; 2 Cor. 10. 4. 5.

These be the Weapons, and these alone of the servants of God; But on the contrary, the servants of the Devill, their Weapons are Tyrannie, crueltie, and shedding of blood, Rev. 9. and 11. 7. 8. and 13. 7. 15. 16. 17. where the Holy Ghost saith, that the Beast (the cheife members of whom the Prelates are) should make warre with the Saints, & should overcome them; & cause them as many as would not worship the Image of the Beast, should be killed; and that none might buy or sell, save he that had the marke of the Beast, or the number of his name; And whether the Prelates doe not in every thing make good this portion of Scripture (for I know some that are excommunicated by them, and that they must neither buy nor sell, nor eate nor drinke with any man) let their constant cruel unheard of blood-thirstie practises, declare, witnesse & manifest; and therefore, Oh you Prelats, you doe plainly shew whose sonnes & servants you are; namely, the sonnes & servants of the Devill himselfe, as Christ himselfe doth prove & declare who hath given a lively & true description of the childred & servants of the Devill, saying unto the Jewes, who sought to kill him, (as the Prelats doe his faithfull people & servants,) who boasted that they were Abrahams sonnes & Children; But, saith he, if you were the Children of Abraham, you would do the workes of Abraham, but yee are of your father the Diuell, and the lusts of your father yee will doe. Hee was a murderier from the beginning & abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him, when he speaketh a lie he speaketh of his owne, for he is a lyar and the father of it; Iohn 8. 39. 40.

Here (Oh you Prelates) Christ doth show how his people & servants may assuredly know you to be sons & servants of the devill; for he describes & sets you forth by two markes; first, the Devill is a murderer, so are you; therefore you are his sonnes, & he is your father, for have you not taken away the lives of Gods faithfull people & servants. Witnesse those that went to Tiburne by your procurement & meanes, in Queene Elizabeths time, who were neither Traitours nor Rebels, but faithfull subjects, & servants to her Majestie; but only they were opposit to your Antichristian & Babilonian Kingdome, and therefore you caused them to be murdered; and more you would have murdered, but her clemencie & mercy was such, that she would not to the full satisfy your blood-thirstie murdering desire. Also have you not kept others in prison, till you have undone them in their outward estats, & means, that you have made them to pine away with hunger & want; which the Holy Ghost saith, is a torment worse then to be put to death by the sword; Lamens.

And some have lost their lives by your meanes in prison; And also have not ye, even ye, shed the blood of those three worthies of the Lord only for spirituall things, who were neither Traitors nor Rebels, (but faithfuller subjects then your selvs, as they have proved in their cross-bill against you) and did write nor teach, neither treason, sedition, nor rebellion, but only opposed themselves against your ungodly wicked Kingdome; The memory of that unpareld act of crueltie, is yet fresh both in your eyes & eares, the like whereof in any Christian state, where the gospel hath been professed, was never heard of in the world; I know others have had too deepe a hand in, being your assistants, and have condescended too much to your wicked desires; But with them I will not, nor doe not in the least meddle, nor have nothing to say to them, but pray, and desire God to open their eyes, and to give them true repētance for their sin, if it be his will & pleasure, & so I leave thē.

But you & you only have been the originall fountaine & true cause of all the righteous blood that hath been shed in this land or Kingdome, for matters of Religion & conscience, ever since the dayes of your first predecessour, Austin the Monke, (even unto this present houre,) who came from the bloody City of Rome, Rev. 17. with Antichrists Authority & Law, the foundation of his & your Kingdome, with exceeding much blood, as we reade in Francis Godwins Catalogue of Bishops, from the 37. page. to the 48. And it hath beene by you & your forefathers maintained & upheld by Tyrannie & blood, ever since to this very time, as I will justifie it & maintaine it before your faces, age after age, even unto this very day.

And the foresaid. Author in that Booke, who was a Bishop, & one of your owne Creatures, for his booke of Meeters doth in part prove it; and therefore know assuredly, that the Lord will require the righteous blood of all his Saints & servants at your hands, which you & your murdering Predecessours, have spilt in abundant manner.

And to me that am but a poore, weake & young stripling, little above 20. yeares of age, who you have cast into prison, for a thing I was not guiltie off, as I declared before the faces of the Chief of you; & yet you have condemned me upon two false oaths, in which the partie, as I am able to prove, hath sworne flatly against himselfe; for in his first Oath he sweareth, that I & Mr. Wharton had printed Doctor Bastwicks Bookes together; and then in his second Oath he swore, that I did them alone; And upon these grounds you have exercised upon me such unheard of acts of crueltie, that the like wherof Paul himselfe among all those tyrants & strange Beasts, Heathens & Pagans, with whom he had to deale, had never exercised & inflicted upon him, though he was the greatest sufferer, 2 Cor. 11. that ever I read off; but only Christ, who for the sake & the salvation of his elect, underwent the wrath of God himselfe, which no abstracted Creature was able to stand under.

But first, in all Pauls sufferings, I never reade that ever his mouth was gaggd, but you have gaggd me, for speaking neither lyes, faction, nor sedition, but only the naked Truth; (the space of an houre & halfe) whereas if I had uttered any errours, or untruths, you being (as you say you are) spirituall Fathers, you ought there publickly to have confuted me, in the presence of the people, you cannot say but you heard of it, for two of the Cheife of you were in the Starr-Chamber at that time, being hard by where I stood.

Againe, the Heathens and Pagans would not condemne Paul, as you may reade Acts 25. till his accusers were brought face to face, to justifie & prove their accusation; but you have caused me to be condemned, and my accusers were never brought face to face, to justifie any thing against me.

And you William Laud, Prelate of Canterburie, for so I call you, and will not in the least revile your person, by calling you out of your name; You, I say, know very well, that in the making of my defence before the honourable Lords, I to your face did silence you in the presence of the open Court, that you had not one word to say unto me, but fate downe as it seemed to me, in a great chaffe & rage, your face being as redd as the face of him, whose countenance did declare, your heart thirsted after my blood, and part of it you have gott; but you are never the better for it, nor I nothing the worse for leaving of it, but much the better; for it hath bene a meane the Lord working with it, to purge my soule from a great deale of corruption; & drosse, hath mightily cleared up my understanding, that I have gott a more true insight by many degrees, into the true wayes of God then I had before; for I was very ignorant of them before, the stripes purged out my ignorance; for the eyes of my understanding were like the eyes of the man in the Gospell, who when Christ had opened them, did see men walking as trees as farre off; even so, and no better did I, for I saw the truths of God but darkely & as farre off, in a hidden manner; but since that the Lord hath taken away the scales of ignorance & blindness that did hang upon my understanding; and hath annointed my eyes with true & spirituall eye-salve, so that I see very much clearer into the pure waies of God, then I did before, for they were hid from my eyes; but now the Lord himselfe hath revealed them unto me; but know ye that the Lord will one day in flaming and burning fire (if you repent nor, but I thinke some of you are past it, Matth: 12. 31. 32. Mark: 3. 29.) render you a recompence, for your blood-thirstie Tyrannie, inflicted upon me, his poore, younge and weake servant; But unto him I committ my selfe and my cause, knowing that vengeance is his, and he will repay it one day upon your heads and pates.

Againe,

Again<sup>e</sup>, Paul when he was a prisoner in the Custody of the very Pagans, that had nothing but the light of nature, to guide them in the wayes of God; yet notwithstanding Felix the Governour gave command to the Centurion, who kept Paul, that he might have liberty, and that he should forbid none of his acquaintance and Freinds to come to him, and minister to his wants and necessity; Acts 24.23. also when he was going to Rome, prisoner, Iulius the Centurion, in whose Custody he was, yet though he were but a Heathen, gave him liberty to goe to his freinds, to refresh himselfe; Acts 27.3. Yea when he was come prisoner to Rome, yet the very infidels had so much humanity, courtesy and mercy in them, as not to lock up Paul close prisoner, in a base & obscure place, so that none might come to him, to speake with him, or bring him any thing; And yet Tertullus the Orator (one of the Prelates Brethren, had accused him for a pestilent fellow; and a mover of sedition among all the Jewes throughout the World, and a ring leader of the Sect of the Nazarens; Yet they let him dwell by himselfe, with a souldier that kept him, two whole yeares, in his owne hired house; where he had libertie to receive all that came unto him, Acts the last Chapter.

Oh! Paul, it was well for thee, and happie wast thou that thou hadst to deale with Pagans, in whose eyes I am sure thou didst finde more favour and mercy, then if thou wast alive, and wert now in England in the like case, shouldst finde at the hands of those that are Christians, in name and boast; And say of themselves, that they are thy successors, but are indeed & in truth, the Disciples of the Devill & Antichrist, as I have already proved, for though all the Prelates in England were not able, having no grounded case to make such an accusation against me as Tertullus did against Paul; Yet for all that have they caused me to be laid in fetters and locks of Iron, in a close roome lockt up close prisoner, from the society of any; Comanding that none should be admitted to com to me, to speake with me, nor to bring me any thing; Also they are so farre from letting me to have libertie to goe and see my freinds, as Paul had; That they will not so much as with a Keeper suffer me to walke a little in the prison-Yard, to take a little aire for my refreshing; my health being impaired for want of aire, and stirring my selfe, which I cannot in the least doe, without much trouble, by reason of my Irons; And I have beene lockt up close prisoner about 4 Moneths, and not suffered in the least to stirr out of my lodging; but when they had me forth before the Majestrate; Yea the Warden of the Fleets hath denied me penn, inke and paper, only to write a short petition to the Lords of the Counsell, (in the presence of my Keeper) that I might have but so much libertie as to take a little aire in the narrow Yard, in the common layle, for my refreshing.

Oh! all you Christian eares that heare of these things, stand amazed and wonder at the blood thirsty, vnparaleld crueltie and tyranny of the Bishops, which they haue caused to be inflicted vpon me, and had no grounded cause originally for to do it, but onely hearing that I set my face towards Sion, as one of the Lambes of Christ; therefore these devouring wolves Math. 7. 15. & craftie subtile foxes Cant. 2. 15. Ezek. 13. 4. haue hunted and thirited after my blood, part of which they haue gott and yet are not satisfied; but longe to pick my carkeises & bones. Now we do not read of the like cruelty inflicted vpon any of the Apottles or their followers, in all the New Testament, by any of those (Tirants, Pagans, Infidels & Heathens) that persecuted them, which they haue caused to be inflicted vpon me; whom they are not able iustlie to accuse, of the breach of the least Commandement or lawes, of God or the King; though I do confesse with David, that I haue secret sinnes Psalme 19. 20. and with Paul that I haue a body of sinne within me Rom. 7. 23. 24. Yet I can say in the presence of my God, and speake the words of truth, that I do desire and labour to be cleansed from them all.

Also I haue challenged them to dispute with them for my life, before the King, to prove their Calling to be from the Diuell, and if I were erroneous, & if they by Gods word could confute me, I would recant publickly.

But their surest pley and infallible Arguments to conuince me, was Clubb-Law, that is to say, take him laylour, and lay him in Irons, in the obscurest and basest place in your prison, and let the stone Walls and iron grates conuince him, for we dare not meete him in the plaine feild, in a publick dispute, though he be but an unlearned youth; And if it be possible, keepe him in darknesse and obscuritie; And if you can doe it handsomely, that the World can take no notice of it, starue him, for we command you to let nothing be brought unto him.

Oh! you Satyrs, Vultars, Owles, and Scritch-Owles, for so the Holy Ghost calls you, Esay: 13. two last verses. Esay: 4. 14. 15. Rev: 18. 2. The Roman spirituall State, being that Cage of filthinesse, that holds you, who are, as the Holy Ghost there speakes, a Company of Dragons, Devils, and foule Spirits.

Oh! you Night-Owles and Birds of Darknesse, and uncleanes, that dare not come to shew your crooked faces in the bright Sun-shining light and cleare Crystall glasse of Gods sacred and unspotted Truth; It sheweth & demonstrateth to all the World, that you are a Company of deformed Creatures, and Sonnes of Darknesse, impiety, wickednesse & ungodlinesse; Or else you would lay aside your Cowardly Clubb-Arguments, and come into the face of the open Sunne, that there you may be seene, whether you be rotten or sound, or whether you be true gold or nothing but durt & drosse, which is good for nothing nothing but the Sunghill, or whether your Kingdome be the Kingdome of Christ, or the Kingdome of the Divell, for of necessity it must be one of these, for there is no more Spirituall Kingdomes in the world but these two. Or whether you your selves be servants of Christ, or the servants and true subjects of the Divell. But your hating of the truth and blaspheming of it, calling it the Refuge of Heritickes, as you did in your open Court, at the Censure of that worthy Doctour, Doctour Iohn Bastwicke. And also your hating and bloody persecuting of them that loue it, doth vndenyably declare and manifest what you are, and of whom your Kingdom doth depend. For Christ saith every one that doth evill hates the light, neither cometh to the light, least his deedes should be reprov'd Iohn 3.20. Truly you plainelie shew, that you are men of darknesse, and workers of wickednes and iniquitie, for you cannot endure the light, for it is too cleare & too bright for you, to come nakedlie and openlie and shew your selues before it; because you are men of darknesse and evill doers, and therefore you hate the light; but if you were men that were workers of righteousnesse, and walked in the waies of truth, you would not be affraide to be tried by the light or it, but would desire to be brought vnto it. And in the former place Christ saith, he that doth truth cometh to the light, that his deedes may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God; and therefore to conclude this point, I will say no more then Christ saith, you may know the tree by the fruit, for a bad tree doth not bring forth good fruit, nor a good tree corrupt fruit Math 7.18 Luke 6.43. But to goe backe againe to Iohn 8. In the second place, Christ saith, The Divell abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him, when he speaketh a ly he speaketh it of his owne for he is a lyar and the father of it. Here Christ shewes that the Children of the Divell abide not in the truth, but have their soules filled with lyes. And whether you the Prelates be not such, I appeale even to your owne writings, sayings & doings, the most of whose writings are stuffed with many vntruths, having almost as many lies in them as pages. And for the vntruths delivered in your Court Sermons, Worthy Doctour Bastwicke in the third part of his Letany, hath painted out in these colours, yea what damnable Doctrines are there taught (saying some few) agreeing with the Filthy Whore & Strumpet of Rome, as that forenamed Doctour doth proue in the second part of his Letany, with which he doth most truly paralel you, that you are in a manner both of one corruption, yea among all the rest he there proues; that you hold and maintaine that monstrous and horrible Doctrines of Transubstantiation, that is to say: That the Body of Christ, is reallie, corperallie, and essentiallie in the Sacrament of his Supper. And this also may be proved out of the great Prelates speech, made before the honorable Lords, at the Censure of the three late worthies. Yea whole Volumes may be of those damnable Doctrins that you hold, & are not ashamed to publish them to the view of the whole world (Cum Privilegio) especially in your late printed Bookes, By all which you proue & make good this portion of Scripture; that you are of your father the Divell, because you do not abide in the truth, but speake, preach, write and maintaine false lies, wicked and damnable Doctrines.

Thus haue I by the strength of my God, a litle deciphered you in a brief way. But it may be, you will be like a nest of Wasps, which being stirred will flie about my eares, with your Scorpion stings, but if you do, it will manifest you to be part of those Locusts (as you are indeede and in truth, that came out of the bottomlesse pitt Revel. 9.2.3. of whom the Hoy Ghost saith; that they had tailes like Scorpions, and there were stings in there tailes, and they had power to hurt men verse 10. But be it known vnto you, that I am not in the least afraid of you, for I nei ther feare an Axe at Tower hill, nor a Snake in Smithfield, nor a Halter at Tyburne, nor Whipping at a Carts-arse, nor a Pillary in the Pallice-yard nor Gagging, nor Cutting of eares and nose; nor Burning in the forehead or cheeks, nor yet Banishment with Iohn to Patmos. For I verilie beleeve if you should send me thither; I shall there finde Christ, which by his spirit will vnfold the Revelation vnto me, and then I would write it and send it abroad into the world, and it would vex you as ill, as Sampson did the Philistims, & proue as fatall to your decaying, tottering, spirituall Babilonian Antichristian Kingdome, as his Foxes with fire-brands at their tailes, were to the Philistims Corne. And therefore as you loue your almost ruined Kingdome; looke to it, and knowe that the faster you kicke, the harder I will spurre you, & the more you sling, the closer will I sticke & cleave fast vnto you; for you are plants (which I groundedly know) the Lord never planted, & therefore vndoubtedly he will plucke you up Mat. 15. 13. And therefore by the might, power and strength of my God, Psal 118. 14. Esa. 12. 2. who is the worker of all my works in mee and for mee, Esa. 26. 12. For I am resolved come life, come death, seeing you by force & crueltie haue called me to it, to thewe my selfe valiant for the truth of God, Ier 9. 3.

I alreadie made three Challenges to dispute with you, but you are so Cowardlie, that you dare not to come into the plaine and open field, but you fight with tyrant-like weapons, namelic: with crueltie. And therefore to see whether you haue any manhoode in you or noe, I make & send forth this fourth Challenge, to you Bishops & Prelates, which is this.

That I will (if you please) dispute with you all, face to face, before the King and State, for life and libertie: vpon these ensuing Propositions,

First,

First, To proue that the Papes Power is from the Diuell.

Secondly, That your Calling, Power, Authoritie & Iurisdiction, is from the Pope.

Thirdly, That all Gods people, are bound vnder paine of eternall damnation, to withdraw their spirituall obedience and subjection, from your spirituall law and Kingdome.

Now vpon these propositions will I dispute with you all, and venter life for life, before the King and State, vpon these tearmes.

First, That you shall lay aside Club-Arguments, which is: take him Iaylour, and lay him in Irons, and locke him up close Prisoner, and keep him in safe custodie.

Secondly, That the Booke of God, which is an infallible truth, shall be the sole Iudge of the Controverfie

Thirdly, That I may haue libertie, without being Gagged, to speake my minde freelie and boldlie.

Fourthly, That I may haue the vse of some books which I shall chuse. And if you dare grāt me these 4 things, if I be not able to proue all the fore said Positions, by demonstrable and vdeniable arguments, that you shall not be able in the words of truth to gainsay or deny thē. I will be willing to lose my head and life, therefore take notice of what I haue now the fourth time said and challenged you to your faces, (for I intend to send you this) that in the presence of the King and Nobles you will make it good, and therefore if you be not Cowards, sitt yourselues to come into the open pitched field face to face.

Also be it knowne vnto you, that I will at Pauls Crosse, dispute with all your Priests and Deacons, vpon these Propositions.

First, That they are all of them, Servants & Ministers of Antichrist.

Secondly, That in the place and standing they are now in, at this present, they haue no authority from God to preach his word, nor administer any of his facied ordinances to the peole, nor the people any ground or warrant out of the word of God, to heare the word from, or pertake with them.

Thirdly, That the Church of England as at this day it stands, is Antichristian, both in Power, in Matter, in Ministrie, in Forme and in Wofhirpps.

Fourthly, That all Gods people are bound in duty & conscience, to separate away from it, & to haue no communion with it.

All which things, if I be not able to proue against them all, laying aside (as I said before) all Club law, and letting the word of God be the sole Iudge of the controverfie; I will be bound to preach a Recatting Sermon in every City in the Kingdome.

JOHN LILBURNE.
